FROM MRS. WESTPHAL

It has been both my privilege and pleasure to teach and serve at St. Paul's this past year. After much prayerful consideration I have accepted a position to teach at a different school next year. I am thankful for St. Paul's and pray God's blessings as you go forward and ask for your prayers too as I serve next year at my new location. Thank you and God bless.

THANK YOU FROM THE RADTKE FAMILY

Dear St. Paul's Staff, Volunteers & Members,

Words cannot express how grateful we are that you hosted the spaghetti fundraiser for our family. It was so nice to see such great Christian support from everyone with volunteering their time and the donations to our family. This money will help us focus on healing instead of worrying about medical bills and finances. We cannot thank you enough for the support that you have shown our family. We love you all and we are beyond blessed to be part of the St. Paul's family! Love, The Radtke Family

FROM THE PASTOR

It was about this time of year (decades ago) that I stepped out of the house and walked to the end of the drive to await the school bus. There was a haze in the air, and the heavy smell of fuel oil filled my nostrils with its pungent fragrance. Of course, I knew what it was. Very early that morning while it was still dark, in the distance you could see hundreds of flames in neat little rows like flickering candles. Farmers had lit their “smudge pots” in the vineyards to protect the delicate buds on their grape vines from the frost.

Frozen buds meant a far diminished harvest in the fall. But the balance here was delicate – the cost of kerosene for a night or two of “smudging” versus the value of the harvest saved.

Our Lord Jesus spoke about the cost of discipleship. In Luke 14:27 He speaks of cross bearing, and then He asks, “Which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it?” Of course, right up front we know that the Son of God paid the cost, all of it, by removing the smudge of our sin on the cross.

But the question remains: “In response to what Christ has done for me, am I willing count the cost of discipleship? Am I willing to sacrifice, serve, and share?” Because we are sinners, we know the answer: Not always. But Christ died for that too! In Him we are forgiven... and rising each day as the baptized, believing children of God, we are given new opportunities to count the cost.

OUTDOOR COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

Divine Connections is having its Third Annual Outdoor Community Celebration.

St. Paul's Lutheran will again be inviting our neighbors to join in worship, food and fellowship.

This year's event will be on June 10, 2018. Worship will be at 9:00 with brunch and fellowship to follow.

We will have 79th street between Lincoln Ave. and Hayes blocked off for this event beginning at 7:30 am.

To help with planning, please sign up in the narthex if you plan on attending. Bring a chair and a friend or two. (Chairs will be provided for our guests as well).

We will also be looking for help with setting up, cooking, serving and clean up. Please look in the narthex for sign-up to help.

Spread the word and invite your friends and neighbors to this fun event.
